Young Leaders Conference Fee Refund Policy – 2026

Withdrawal from the Conference:

- If a participant decides to withdraw from the Young Leaders Conference before the 25th of November, s/he must inform the team and YLC contact person in writing (ylc@sol.edu.pk) and through call (+92 21 35373946) after which s/he will be applicable for a 100% refund.
- If a participant decides to withdraw from the Young Leaders Conference after the 27th of November, s/he must inform the team and contact person in writing (ylc@sol.edu.pk) and through call (+92 21 35373946) after which s/he will be applicable for a deducted refund. The School of Leadership will be entitled to withhold 20% from the paid amount. This amount is subject to be refunded 20 working days after the Conference has concluded.
- If a participant decides to withdraw from the Young Leaders Conference after the 30th of November, no refund will be processed and the total amount will be withheld by the School of Leadership.

Non-attendance

- If a participant fails to attend the conference due to any personal reason, the participation fee will not be refunded.

In Case of Expulsion from the Conference:

- If a participant is expelled from the conference by the School of Leadership for reasons of misconduct and has deposited the dues for Conference before attending, all such dues deposited will not be refunded.
- If a participant decides to exit the conference based on a personal decision, the fee paid will not be refunded. In such a case, the participant will not be allowed to be a part of Young Leaders Conference in the future.

Immediate Cancellation:

- If a participant is found misleading/misguiding the management about their age or any other areas of eligibility set by the Young Leaders Conference, the participant's seat will be released immediately and no amount will be refunded.
- If a YLC alumni is found attending the conference, an immediate expulsion will be processed, in which case no refund will be processed.

General

School of Leadership reserves the right to postpone or reschedule the conference due to unforeseen circumstances. Where a refund is due to a participant, as per the above guidelines, a full or conditional refund will be made. Please note that School of Leadership can withdraw, expel and immediately cancel any application which breaks the code of conduct or norms, set by the organization.
